

Application for Redirection Of Domestic Mail

May 2018

What the service offers

Jersey Post's domestic mail redirection services enables customers to have their mail redirected to an alternative address in Jersey, the UK or internationally for up to two years. The cost of the service depends on the length of the redirection, the redirection destination and the number of different surnames involved.

To redirect mail without the authority of the addressee is a criminal offence.

To apply for this service simply complete the attached form and take it to your nearest Post Office with payment and the relevant identification - passport, driving license or valid bus pass, plus a recent utility bill, bank or credit card statement. If you want to apply by post, we only accept payment by cheque payable to Jersey Post Ltd. A minimum of five working days is required to set up this service.

You can also set up your Redirection service online at www.jerseypost.com

“Terms of Business” means Jersey Post’s Terms of Business, a copy of which is available at www.jerseypost.com, as amended from time to time.

2. Using the Redirection of Domestic Mail Service

Application Form

Completion of the Application Form by the Client indicates agreement by the Client with these Terms and Conditions. Jersey Post has the right to refuse any application for the Service. All addresses must be correct and contain the correct postcode - for full and correct address details please contact the Customer Services Team on 616616 or email customerservices@jerseypost.com.

Service and period of redirection

Jersey Post will commence the Service on the ‘Start Date’ set out in section 3 of the Application Form. Correctly addressed mail will be redirected to the “New Address” set out in section 2 of the Application Form. Mail which is not correctly addressed may not be redirected. Mail will be redirected for the period indicated in the Application Form.

The maximum period for redirection of mail is 2 years.

Delay of redirected mail

Due to the additional operational burden associated with the Service, redirected mail may be delayed for up to 24 hours and Jersey Post has no liability for any delay as a result of the Service.

Authority to redirect mail

The Client acknowledges that it is a criminal offence to redirect or attempt to redirect mail without the authority of the addressee. Jersey Post will refer any suspected unauthorised redirection to the appropriate authorities. Client’s compliance The Client will ensure that the use of the Service complies with: a. Jersey Post’s Terms of Business and any schemes and conditions for provision of the Service; and b. all laws, regulations and requirements applicable in Jersey or, where appropriate, any other law which may be relevant and including, without limitation, laws relating to anti-money laundering activities.

3. Variation of the Service

Mail Jersey Post cannot redirect

Jersey Post cannot redirect the following types of mail:

- Mail addressed to a multiple occupancy residence such as a hotel, a guest house, a nursing home, a college or similar.
- Special Delivery and Recorded Delivery items when the redirection address is outside the UK or Channel Islands. Please note that any redirection of Special Delivery or Recorded Delivery items within the UK or Channel Islands will not meet any delivery time guarantee which may have originally been placed on the relevant item and Jersey Post has no liability in that respect. Jersey Post will return non-deliverable items to the sender.
- Social Security and similar mail. We may be required by law not to redirect social security and similar mail and to pass on the redirection details to the Social Security Department. To prevent problems arising, Clients should contact the Social Security Department and advise them of the new address as soon as the Client knows it. For full and correct address details please contact the Customer Services Team on 616616 or email: customerservices@jerseypost.com or log on to www.jerseypost.com
- Mail on which the sender indicates that the mail is not to be redirected.
- Items delivered to your old address by other delivery services and courier companies.
- Mail which is not correctly addressed.

Correct form of addressee

Where the addressee’s name on an item of mail is deemed by Jersey Post, at its sole discretion, to be ‘questionable’, Jersey Post has the right to deliver the item as addressed.

‘Questionable’ addressee details include, without limitation, where the addressee’s name is a nickname, abbreviation or where it is unclear whether an item is intended for the addressee notified on the Application Form.

Redirecting from a PO Box

Jersey Post will only redirect from a PO Box which has been closed and for a period not exceeding 6 months. However, Jersey Post has the right to defer redirection until agreement from any relevant external authorities has been sought. Jersey Post will not redirect mail from a PO Box to another PO Box (but, to avoid doubt, will redirect from a physical address to a PO Box).

Suspension or termination of the Service

Jersey Post, at its sole discretion, has the right to suspend, terminate or limit the Service at any time. In particular, Jersey Post may suspend or terminate the Service in relation to any Client at any time if the Client breaches any of the terms of these Terms & Conditions.

Cancellation of the Service

Any cancellation of the Service by the Client must be made in writing and be signed by all relevant parties, including any Named Users.

4. Costs

Charges

The charge for the Service varies according to the duration of redirection, the redirection destination and the number of different Surnames involved. The charges will be determined by Jersey Post annually and are subject to review at the discretion of Jersey Post.

Payment

All payments for the Service must be made at the time of application. Jersey Post will not commence any redirection unless and until payment has been made in full and funds have cleared in respect of such payment.

Refunds

No refund will be made in respect of a cancellation of the Service by Jersey Post as a result of a breach of these Terms and Conditions by the Client. As the Client chooses the initial period of redirection, no refund will be made where the Client wishes to cancel the Service prior to the date on which the Services are scheduled to end. Any other refund will be entirely at Jersey Post’s discretion.

5. Other

Personal information

By requesting the Service, you hereby authorise Jersey Post to collect, process and store the personal information requested in the Domestic Redirection Service Application Form and to disclose it to parties who are required to know for the purpose of providing the Service, including any parties related to Jersey Post. Jersey Post is required to comply with data protection legislation applicable in Jersey.

SecureDrop

Our free SecureDrop service lets you select a safe and weather-proof location within your home grounds as an alternative to your letterbox, so you can receive larger items even when you’re not home.

Due diligence documentation required

Jersey Post requires verification of the identity of the Client who is applying for the Service as set out in section 4 of the Application Form. The Client must ensure that, in the event of any change to the information contained in such documents, the Client will provide Jersey Post with new documents recording such changes within 30 days of such changes occurring.

Amendments to Terms and Conditions

Jersey Post reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions at any time. The provision of the Service is subject to compliance with these Terms and Conditions and the Client will forfeit all rights by a failure to comply with all or any of these Terms and Conditions.

For further information, please contact the Customer Services Team on 616616 or email: customerservices@jerseypost.com or visit www.jerseypost.com
